ABOUT THE INSTRUCTORS:

Kerri McClary received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice from Central State University in Oklahoma. Her law enforcement career spans over 30 years; beginning as an Identification Technician with the Kansas Bureau of Investigation, served as a Special Agent with the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division and an Investigator at the University of South Carolina Division of Law Enforcement and Safety. Ms. McClary is currently an Investigator at The Richland County Sheriff’s Department. She is an adjunct faculty member in the extensive 10-week National Forensic Academy training program located in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. She provides training to the law enforcement community locally and nationwide through her consulting company, Kerri McClary Consulting, LLC. Ms. McClary has an extensive background as a latent print examiner, crime scene investigator and forensic photographer. She has received additional educational training and experience in forensic photography and digital imaging from the F.B.I. Academy in Quantico, Virginia. She is a certified crime scene analyst through the International Association for Identification. She is a past president and is currently a member of the South Carolina Chapter of the International Association for Identification. Ms. McClary is currently serving as President of the Richland County Sheriff’s Posse. She serves as a peer team member for the South Carolina Law Enforcement Assistance Program where she assists law enforcement officers and their families with critical incident debriefings and training in South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia. She is also an active member and supporter of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Officers Association.

John Williams has over 31 years of law enforcement experience and retired from the South Carolina Department of Public Safety, as the Section Chief of Advanced Training in March 2005. Immediately upon retiring, he opened John Williams Consulting, LLC, with a primary emphasis on providing training to law enforcement personnel. John has been teaching law enforcement and forensic courses for over 30 years specializing in forensic photography. He is an adjunct faculty member in the extensive 10-week National Forensic Academy training program located in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. He travels the country providing training through his company, collaborating with Ms. McClary, and Forensic Training Source, LLC. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of South Carolina. He is a member in good standing of SCLEOA, IAI, and SCIAI.
